GERMAN BORN SCULPTOR EXHIBITS HIS NEW BRONZE BUST
OF WINSTON CHURCHILL IN LONDON... 17-1-50.

A bronze bust of WINSTON CHURCHILL by seventy two year old BENNO ELKAN, is on show at the Walderstein Galleries, New Bond Street.. Mr. Elkan, who left Germany in 1933 has worked on the bust for seven years - most of the time unknown to Mr. and Mrs. Churchill.. It was the sculptor's personal tribute.. Early this year Mrs. Churchill paid a visit to the studios and was so impressed that she persuaded her husband to go there too - he agreed to give several sittings.. Mr. Elkan has notably contributed to religious art in this country & the candelabra in the nave of Westminster Abbey is his work..
